KITESURFING PARADISE

Constant wind, white sandy beach, palm trees and the blue Caribbean sea make Tulum a true kitesurfing paradise. The relicts of the Maya civilization in the 13th-15th centuries on the rocks give the spot a unique atmosphere.

Average temperature:
min. \varnothing 21°C and max. \varnothing 33 °C

Average water temperature: 26°C

Average wind speed: 12 – 25 kts

FKC MEETS SUMMIT

One of the world's leading entrepreneur festivals is taking place the weekend immediately after the Founders Kite Club Tulum event. This is not a coincidence. There is an opportunity for FKC members to attend the Summit Tulum from April 20th - 23rd.

Summit Series creates immersive, multi-day, ideas festivals that feature cutting edge conversations with the thought leaders of our time, along side incredible food, performance, and adventures for our community of change-makers.

Summit is taking over the entire South end of Tulum's beachfront to create 3 days packed with learning and inspiration. In case you haven't had enough kiting, you can still kite every day during the FKC@Summit Kite Sessions.

To request an invite, please write to FKC's dedicated Summit rep Noah noah@summit.co to schedule a quick phone call. Similar to FKC, Summit is a selective community and requires applications.
